THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1890.

To Members of the Legislature.
Extra copies of the Daily Commonwealth, put up in wrappers, ready for mailing, will be furnished at 2 cents each, and extra copies of the Weekly put up in wrappers at 4 cents each.

Gentlemen wishing extra copies of either the Daily or Weekly will please leave their orders beforehand at this office, or with JOHN M. TODD, in the H. R., or G. W. LEWIS, in the Senate, Reporters for this paper. Orders for the Weekly must be left by Saturday evening of each week, as it is published on Monday; and for the Daily the day before the publication of the paper which is wanted.

Attention, Opposition!

There will be held a Convention of the Opposition to the reckless extravagance of the present Administration, to the secession slave-trading Democracy, and to Northern Abolitionism, at the Court House in this city, on next Monday. We trust that there will be a full attendance. Let the people assemble and deliberate upon what is best to be done in the present emergency.

Appointments by the Governor.

Hon. L. W. ANDREWS and Hon. JOHN F. FISK to be Aids to the Governor with the rank of Colonel.

We have received a copy of a Nashville paper containing a report of the speech of Mr. Maynard at the Peyton dinner, from which it appears that we did that gentleman some injustice in our comments upon his remarks. Our impression was that Mr. Maynard had advocated a virtual dissolution of the Union if Mr. Seward should be elected President. It appears, however, that he really said only that it was his belief that, if Mr. Seward should be nominated and elected upon his higher law and irrepressible conflict doctrine, the operations of the Federal Government in the South will come to a stand still in less than a week, since no one from this section would accept office under any man avowing such sentiments as those repeatedly uttered by the Senator from New York. This is certainly somewhat different from the language which we attributed to him. Without going into any debate as to the truth or falsity of Mr. Maynard's statement, we must say that his remarks, even as modified, were in very bad taste upon such an occasion. What had Seward's opinions to do with the dinner given to Mr. Peyton? Cannot Southern gentlemen attend a festive and social meeting, make complimentary and laudatory speeches, and drink their wine as other men do, without continually threatening or predicting what will be the consequence if such and such a contingency shall occur? Whether Mr. Maynard's assertions were correct or not, the occasion was not one which called for their expression. We repeat that his speech was in execrable taste. We were surprised that Mr. Maynard should be guilty of such an indiscretion, and for his sake regretted that the speech was made.

Perhaps we should add, that our apology for him on the score that he was too much heated by wine, was uncalculated for, as we are informed that Mr. Maynard is very temperate in his respect.

TEXAS FOR HOUSTON.—A mass meeting, held at Austin, Texas, on the 20th ult., nominated Gen. SAM HOUSTON for the Presidency, and effected an energetic organization to carry out the objects of the Convention. We have received a pamphlet containing the proceedings on the occasion, which were marked by strong expressions of attachment to the Union, and of hostility to the fire eaters. Among the speakers was Hon. LESLIE COMBS, of Kentucky, who made an eloquent address, which was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

THE peculiarities of the female constitution and the various trials to which the sex is subjected, demand an occasional recourse to stimulants. It is important, however, that these shall be of a harmless nature, and at the same time accomplish the desired end. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is the very article. Its effects in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives that cheerfulness to the temperament, which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel flattered from the fact that many of the most prominent medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed encomiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. There are numerous counterfeits offered for sale, all of which are destitute of merit, and positively injurious to the system.

CALIFORNIA SENATORSHIP.—Both DENVER and WELLES have been defeated in their aspirations for the Senatorship from California. Gov. LEAHAM, who has just been inaugurated, and who was one of BROWDER's bitterest enemies, is elected.

The amount of gold produced from the mines of California for a period of ten years—from the year 1843 to 1858—was $44,000,000; while during the six years—from 1852 to 1858—Australia has produced $410,922,000; making together a total of $454,922,000.

In our paper of yesterday we stated the increase of slaves for 1858 in the lower counties of the State to be 4,723. It should have been 5,723.

The demand for Dr. Bull's Vegetable Worm Destroyer continues to increase at a rate that tasks the Dr.'s energy to its utmost to keep up the supply. It is indeed a wonderful remedy, preserving to the palate, as it does, a taste as simple and pleasant as candy drops, but operating with unfailing certainty to destroy and expel all worms from the intestines.

Decision of the Court of Appeals.

(Reported expressly for the Commonwealth by JOHN M. BROWN, Attorney-at-Law, Frankfort, Ky.)

From Christian Circuit.

This action was brought on a petition filed by the father of some infants who were entitled to real estate in remainder on the death of the father. It was sought to subject this interest to sale. The father averred that he was guardian, under an appointment made by a proper court in Texas, where they all resided.

Chief Justice SIMMONS delivered the opinion. The principal question arises on the report of the commissioners appointed to report the net value of the infants' personal and real estate, and the annual profits thereof.

It has been heretofore decided by the court that it is the duty of the commissioners to report the value of the whole estate of infants, and their report, unless this be done, will be adjudged insufficient and not in compliance with the statute.

The commissioners, after stating the value of the land proposed to be sold, state that "there is no other estate in this country belonging to said heirs known to them." From this statement it might be inferred that there was other estate, known to the commissioners, belonging to the infants, but not in this country. The commissioners should have satisfied themselves by proper inquiries of the guardian and other persons in regard to the estate actually belonging to the infants, whether in this or any other State. Having thus satisfied themselves on this point, they should state that they have valued the whole estate belonging to the infants. From the uncertainty of the expressions used by the commissioners, it does not appear that they made the proper investigations, and the report must be deemed insufficient. And as a sufficient report of commissioners is indispensable to a decree in such cases, the exceptions of the purchaser to the report ought to have been sustained, and the sale quashed.

We would also remark that as the statute requires the petition for the sale of infants' real estate to be filed by the statutory guardian, and the bond executed by him, and as the plaintiff is a son resident guardian, appointed by the court of another State, it might be proper to obtain an order from the County Court of Christian county to authorize him to act as a guardian appointed in this State. Without such authority he may not have any right to sue as guardian in the courts of this State. The power to confer such power is given to the County Court by R. S., p. 376.

There is an objection made to the sale, on the ground that the estate in remainder does not belong exclusively to the children now in esse of the tenant for life, but that children who may be hereafter born would be entitled to an interest therein. This is objected by the act of February, 1828, amending chapter 86, R. S. This act authorized the sale of real estate in cases like this, for the purpose of investing the proceeds in other property in or out of this State, to be held in the same manner and for the same uses as the property sold was held, and requires the court ordering the sale to see that the reinvestment is made.

The judgment overruling the motion to quash the sale is reversed, and the cause remanded with directions to sustain the motion, and for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion.

Kentucky State Agricultural Society—The next State Fair.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the State Agricultural Society, will be held at Frankfort, on the 23d day of February, 1890, for the purpose, among other business, of receiving from the several local Societies in the State, propositions for holding with them the Fifth Annual Kentucky State Fair. Parties making propositions will please accompany them by statements of the extent of their grounds, the size and character of their buildings, fences, &c., and the nature of the public thoroughfares by which they are reached.

At this meeting, many public documents will be ready for distribution to members of the State Society, and also for delivery to officers of County or District Societies for distribution among their members.

L. J. BRADFORD, Pres't.

WASHINGTON'S ANCESTRY.—Back into the shadow past, six hundred years and more, we may look and see the name of Washington presented in the honorable mention in several counties in England, on the records of the field, the church and the state. They were generally first-rate agriculturalists and eminently loyal men when their sovereigns were in trouble. In that trying time for England's monarch, a little more than two hundred years ago, when a republican army, under the authority of a revolutionary parliament, was hunting King Charles the First, Sir Henry Washington, a nephew of the Duke of Buckingham, is observed as Governor of Worcester, and his able defender during a siege of three months, by the parliamentary troops under Gen. Fairfax. And earlier than this, when Charles, as Prince Royal, was a suitor of the hand of the Infanta of Spain we find a Washington attached to his person. The loyal James Howell, who suffered long imprisonment in Fleet street jail because of his attachment to Charles, was in the train of the Prince while at Madrid; and from that city he wrote to his "noble friend, Sir John North," in the summer of 1623.

A GODLESS UNIVERSE.—A man may, for twenty years, believe in the immortality of the soul; in the one and twentieth, in some great moment, he, for the first time, discovers with amazement the rich meaning of this belief. No one in creation is so alone as the denver of God; he mourns with an orphaned heart that has lost its Father, by the corpse of nature, which no word spirit moves and builds together, and which grows in its grave; and he mourns by that corpse till he himself crumbles off from it. The whole world lies before him like the Egyptian sphinx of stone, half buried in the sand; and then all is the cold iron waste of a formless eternity. [Jean Paul.]

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4. A large meeting was held at the National Hall in this city to night, to form a Constitution Union party. Resolutions were adopted arranging for the construction of a party combining all the conservative elements of the country.

No prayer of note addressed the assembly, but letters approving the objects of the meeting were read from Hon. Edward Everett, Hon. Milard Fillmore, Hon. E. M. Connel, of Louisiana, and Hon. John Minor Botts. The patriotic sentiments in the letters were greeted with the greatest applause.

THE POWER OF PROSE.—Pride is like certain flies, which alight especially upon the fairest wheat and the loveliest roses. A proud cardinal, in Luther's time, said: "A reformation is indeed needed and to be desired, but that Luther, a rascally friar, should be the man to do it, is intolerable."

Cobb v. Planters Bank of Tennessee, Lyon.

DeGraffenreid v. Wake et al., Lyon.

Warfield v. Jacob et al., Lyon—were submitted on briefs.

Reed v. Cecil et al., Casey; argument continued by James for appellee and Harlan for appellant.

The Dubuque (Iowa) Herald, of the 31st ult., has a letter from Des Moines, dated Jan. 24th, containing the following item of intelligence:

Considerable feeling was excited to day by the appearance of an agent from Virginia with a requisition upon Gov. Kirkwood for Cope, a brother of the man of that name who was recently hung at Charles own. It is said Cope is with his friends in Cedar county. He was engaged in the John Brown story, and escaped into Canada. But he has imprudently returned into this State, and is in danger of suffering for the crimes committed against a sister State. Gov. Kirkwood, upon some pretext, refused to comply with the requisition.

State has probably been told to warn Cope of his danger, and before a new requisition can be procured he will be safe in Canada.

A story of good luck is being circulated in Danbury, Ct. A man near Fairfield, named Stevens, it is said, lately died off at auction sale, for a trifling sum, a package of old papers belonging to his father's estate, among which was found a deed for a soldier's land warrant. It runs that the location is where the village of Batesville, in Arkansas, is now built, and that he sold his claim to a gentleman of that State for $42,000.

REYNOLDS & UNDERHILL,
Orange, N. Y.

CAPITAL HOTEL, Frankfort, Ky.,

Dec. 10, 1889.

THIS is to certify that Samuel Reynolds of Oswego, N. Y., has put into my hands, known as the Reynolds Patent Water Wheel, one of his Central Pressure Water Wheels. It is one foot in diameter and takes the place of a 22 foot overshot wheel. With the Overshot Wheel I can grind seven and one half bushels of wheat to the hour with a full head of water, and with the Reynolds wheel I can grind the same quantity of wheat to the hour, and the water used to run it, it filled the buckets on the Overshot Wheel two third full.

Mr. Reynolds put the Wheel in with the understanding that it did not grind as much as the Overshot but the same water he was to take it out and charge nothing for his trouble.

I am satisfied that it will grind one third more to the bushel than the Overshot, and I have given it to him. I have been acquainted with Mr. Reynolds about six months and will guarantee that his Wheels will give more power than he claims for them. I therefore commend him to the public.

R. C. STEELE.

GREAT CROSSING, Scott Co., Ky.,

December 19, 1889.

Messrs. Talbot & Underhill, Oswego, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN: I take pleasure in saying to you that the Water Wheel, four feet in diameter double fluted, purchased of Mr. Samuel Reynolds, the inventor, is now in operation and is giving me the entire satisfaction, grinding fully up to what it was recommended to do.

My first trial with it was at a very low stage of water, only five feet head, and it gave me a full bushel per hour run 4 1/2 bushels. Bolts, Smit Mill, &c., with the gate open. When the water rose so as to give me five feet head I have full for two run of Bolts, doing full work, so that under the full head (six feet) I have a surplus of power.

I have run in backward to the depth of four feet with no perceptible loss of power. This Wheel is put in place of a thirteen feet diameter Breast Wheel, and gives fully double the power with about the same amount of water that it did. Therefore take pleasure in paying you for it, believing that I now have a wheel that will last me 50 years.

Signed, Very truly yours,
Jan. 25, 1890—J. M. D. W. H. M. DONALD.
